Ever wonder what Abraham Lincoln did as a child? Was he always so honest and humble? Find out in Spencer County. Sights throughout Lincoln's Indiana boyhood home commemorate where young Abe lived from the age of 7 until he was 21.

See a cabin site memorial and visit the Living Historical Farm at Lincoln Boyhood National Memorial.

Walk the trails on the same grounds Abe walked many years ago at Lincoln State Park and visit the Lincoln Bicentennial Plaza which celebrates his 200th birthday. Tour the Colonel Jones Home, the former home of Abe's merchant employer.

Watch Abe's Indiana story come to life on stage at Lincoln Amphitheatre.

Take a relaxing look back into history with 13 Lincoln-era replica cabins and an artifact-filled museum at the Lincoln Pioneer Village & Museum in Rockport, near the Ohio River.

Stop by Lincoln Landing where Abe launched his first flatboat trip to New Orleans, inspiring his anti-slavery views, and see Lincoln Ferry Park where he was sued over his ferry business, sparking an interest in law.

Saint Meinrad Archabbey

As one of only two archabbeyes in the U.S., the Saint Meinrad Archabbey offers tranquil grounds and beautiful architecture. A great place to get away and relax in St. Meinrad, Indiana.

Wineries

Stay and sip local. Visit Monkey Hollow Winery and Distillery in St. Meinrad, and Pepper's Ridge Winery in Rockport. Both wineries are part of the Hoosier Wine Trail in southern Indiana.

Holiday Drive-In

Travel back in time at one of the few remaining drive-in movie theaters. The Holiday Drive-In provides six screens showing double features. Experience a big screen under the stars in Reo, Indiana.
