

Group Travel Top 10: Play, Stay, & Eat

This travel itinerary for Santa Claus, Indiana, and the sites throughout Lincoln's Indiana Boyhood Home is a little bit Christmassy, a little bit historical, and a whole lot of fun!

PLAY

Santa Claus Christmas Store – Browse Christmas gifts, decorations, collectibles, more than 8,000 ornaments (many available personalized for free), fudge, cookies, candy, and so much more!

Santa Claus Museum & Village – Learn the town's history and explore a collection of original town buildings dating back to 1856, including the original Santa Claus Church and town's first post office. Grab a group photo in front of the 22-foot-tall Santa Statue!

Lincoln Boyhood National Memorial – Visit the site where Abraham Lincoln and his family lived in a pioneer community from 1816 to 1830. Experience the museum, Living Historical Farm, Nancy Hanks Lincoln's gravesite, and more.

Lincoln Pioneer Village & Museum – Step back in time with a tour through 13 Lincoln-era replica cabins that stand in memorial to Abraham Lincoln's years spent in the area. A museum houses hundreds of fascinating artifacts from the area's historic past.

Saint Meinrad Archabbey – Tour the peaceful and spiritual grounds of Saint Meinrad Archabbey. The Benedictine monastery was founded in 1854 and is one of only two archabbeyes in the United States and one of 11 in the world.

Wineries – Two local wineries, Monkey Hollow Winery and Distillery and Pepper's Ridge Winery invite guests to enjoy complimentary sips, outdoor seating, and gorgeous country views.

STAY

Santa's Lodge – Close to area attractions and shopping, this festive, full-service hotel offers an onsite restaurant, indoor and outdoor pools, and more.

Lincoln Pines Lakefront Resort – Guests can enjoy a comfortable, private stay in their own cottage, each named after something significant to Lincoln's life. Onsite amenities and activities include fishing, swimming, a game room, and more.

EAT

St. Nick's Restaurant – Located inside Santa's Lodge, this Christmas-themed restaurant offers extensive buffet options for groups.

The Rustic – Located alongside a golf course, this restaurant offers great views along with a menu of steak, chicken, pork, and seafood options.
